John A. Schulte, Traveling Salesman Injured Near Flat River

John A. Schulte, 719 Good Hope Street, grocery drummer, was brought here yesterday suffering from severely lacerated scalp and bruised side. The injuries were received Monday near Flat River, when the service car in which he was riding turned over, pinning him underneath the car.

Schulte had employed a service man to drive him to an adjoining town. A patch of loose gravel was encountered and the car, a Ford turned completely over. The machine, it was reported, fell across Schulte's head. The injuries are not serious and he is expected to be out in a few days. Mrs. Schulte was called to Flat River early Tuesday morning. She accompanied her husband home yesterday—Cape Sun, Saturday, Oct. 22.

Mayfield Girls Clean Up in Basket Ball

The girls' basket ball team of Mayfield College won their third and fourth straight victories Friday, October 28, at Puxico, and at home Saturday, October 29.

At Puxico our girls had to play under abnormal conditions, traveling in cars all day and then playing that evening on a small floor with posts obstructing their play. Under these unfavorable conditions the Mayfield girls defeated Puxico by a 27 to 17 score.

The following morning the Mayfield girls rose early and traveled back home to play Advance the same afternoon. After being tired out from their long journey they defeated Advance in a close game, 16 to 12.

The Mayfield team now has a record of four victories and no defeats.

Mayfield Is Defeated in Football

The Mayfield football team traveled to Perryville where they faced a machine. They were beaten by a strong team. Perryville received the first break of the game in the first quarter with two touchdowns.

Perryville came home in the second quarter with a touchdown by Linsey, who carried it around back and a twenty yards and touchdown, also E. F. Tate, 9 and the John Farmer, leading goal.
